Students may combine a German course with one of the courses offered in the Kiel International Studies program. Please see the International Studies Kiel program flyer for more information.

Credit
Depending on their level of German, students may earn 6-8 credits. Students can complete the B.A. language requirement by completing German 2020 and may also apply courses toward German major/minor requirements. Successful completion of the study abroad program fulfills the Bachelor Degree International Requirement.

Travel Dates
Depart U.S. Thursday, June 28
Arrive Kiel Friday, June 29
Depart Kiel Friday, August 3

Excursions & Activities
The program includes a full-day excursion to the medieval city of Lübeck, a weekend trip to the island of Sylt, and additional half-day excursions to sights in and around Kiel. Students will also have the option to participate in a visit to the Norwegian capital of Oslo, which includes one night each day on the Color Line ferry, and two nights in Oslo. The total cost will be about €300. Free sailing excursions, with a guide, are available through Christian-Albrechts-Universität.

Accommodation
Students may live in dormitories or with a host family, both within reasonable distance of the central campus. The homestay is a great way for students to use their German outside of the classroom and is encouraged. Students staying in dormitories are responsible for their own meals while students staying with a host family will be provided breakfast and dinner.

Pre-departure Orientation
An orientation session will be held to provide program and cultural information. Participants will be contacted when this is arranged. At this meeting you will receive course information, travel details, and meet others in the group.

Program Cost
To be determined. The total cost is determined by the accommodation choice plus the credit hour fee. The 2011 cost was:

- Dormitory $3,165
- Homestay $3,540 (includes two meals/day)

Credit Hour Fee
$270, 6 credits
$315, 7 credits
$360, 8 credits

Includes: Tuition, room, international health insurance, scheduled excursions and social events.

Does Not Include: Airfare, passport, books, meals if staying in dorms (estimated $350-$500), one meal per day if staying with a host family, personal expenses, local transportation, and independent travel.

Eligibility Requirements
- Minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
- Completion of one semester of college-level German or the equivalent
- Minimum age of 18

U of U students, students at other colleges or universities, alumni and qualified members of our community are welcome to apply to participate in U of U study abroad programs.

Location
Kiel is a modern city on a beautiful inlet of the Baltic Sea, near the Danish border. Berlin, Amsterdam, and Copenhagen can be reached easily by train. There is also an overnight ferry that takes you to Sweden or Norway. Many water sports are available, including sailing and windsurfing.

Course Information
The curriculum includes language and culture courses from beginning to advanced levels at Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel. Courses are taught by experienced German language teachers and native speakers from the Kiel/Hamburg area. Students may also take advantage of the German tutors (usually students at the University in Kiel), who engage program participants in various extracurricular activities such as cooking, sports, and getting to know the city.

The Intensive German Language program will run in conjunction with the International Studies Kiel program that fulfills International Studies major requirements.
Application Deadline
9 March 2012

Late applications will be accepted with an additional non-refundable $50 fee for 30 days after the initial deadline or until the program is full.

Application Process
1. Go to www.studyabroad.utah.edu

2. Click “Search and Apply.”

3. If you are a current U of U student, click “U of U Students” to log-in using your uNID and CIS password. If you are not a current U of U student, click “Non-U of U Students” to create a user account.

4. Search for the program you wish to apply for by clicking Search Programs. To narrow your search you can select Destination. You can also select Faculty-Led under “Type” to see only University of Utah summer faculty-led programs.

5. Once you find the program, click “Apply.”

6. The following are the main steps in the application:
   - $500 program deposit paid at the Cashier’s Window in SSB 105. You will download a payment form from the online application to take to the Cashier and then submit to the Study Abroad Office once it has been stamped “Paid.”
   - A one page personal statement describing how the program meets your academic and personal goals for the study abroad program. You will be able to upload your statement into your online application.
   - A One letter of recommendation from a university level instructor. In the online application, you will submit the name and e-mail of the person you wish to be your recommender. Once you enter that information, an e-mail will automatically be sent to that person requesting a recommendation. The recommender will then complete an online recommendation form. Please note: It is essential that you contact the recommender before you enter their e-mail address so s/he is aware that you would like them to complete a recommendation.

7. All applications will be reviewed by the Program Director(s) and Study Abroad Advisor to determine eligibility. You will be notified through your Umail address regarding your acceptance into the program.

   It is your responsibility to ensure that all the components of your application are completed prior to the application deadline.

Withdrawal & Refund Policy
$300 plus any unrecoverable costs to the Study Abroad Office at the time of withdrawal are non-refundable. To withdraw, the applicant must formally file a Withdrawal Form with the Study Abroad Office. If an applicant is determined ineligible to participate, the $500 deposit will be refunded in full.

Financial Aid & Scholarships
Scholarships are available for U of U students. The Student Fee scholarship application will be due 17 February 2012 and the application for all other scholarships will be due 9 March 2012. Visit the Study Abroad Office for more information on the scholarship application process. Other forms of financial aid (student loans, grants, etc.) can be applied to the program cost. Visit your Financial Aid Counselor for more information in SSB 105 or call 581-6211.
